Suspicious Circumstances

On Sunday, November 17, 2019, at 10:44 p.m., a couple from Ohio came into the Royal Oak Police Station to report they had been robbed sometime earlier in the night. The couple stated they had pulled over near Woodward and Catalpa between 9:00 and 9:30 p.m. to re-adjust some luggage in the trunk of the vehicle.

The victims alleged two black male suspects approached them with guns and demanded their belongings. The suspects fled in a dark blue, midsize sedan after taking a fur coat, Gucci bag, jewelry, and wallet with a large amount of cash.

The couple gave conflicting accounts of what occurred, and have since failed to cooperate with investigators. An investigation is ongoing to determine what, if anything, occurred in Royal Oak.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the Royal Oak Police Department, Criminal Investigation Division Lieutenant Albert Carter at (248)246-3456.

Window Peeper

On Wednesday, November 20, 2019, at 8:55 p.m., Officers responded to the 400 block of Gardenia Ave., on a report of a suspicious person. The caller said she observed an unknown male looking into a neighbor's window. When the caller's husband confronted the suspect, he fled on a bicycle northbound through the cemetery.

Officers immediately set up a perimeter with K9 Officer Cavanagh along with his K9 partner Conan searching the area. The search led northeast of the cemetery before the track was lost.

The suspect was described as an unknown male with a large build, wearing a dark hat and a heavy coat.

Later that evening, a suspect matching the same description was observed looking into windows in Birmingham.
