UPDATE – Window Peeper

On November 25, 2019, Detectives from Royal Oak and Birmingham Police Departments, in a corroborated effort, developed a known suspect in both communities. Kenton Carl Driscoll, a 54-year-old resident of Ferndale was arrested by Troy Special Investigation Unit. Driscoll was arrested on the Birmingham charges of peeping and prowling out of the 48th District Court in Bloomfield Hills.

Royal Oak Detectives are continuing their investigation with interviewing witnesses to pursue charges from the incident in our city.

Kenton Carl Driscoll 08/31/1965

Window Peeper

On Wednesday, November 20, 2019, at 8:55 p.m., Officers responded to the 400 block of Gardenia Ave., on a report of a suspicious person. The caller said she observed an unknown male looking into a neighbor's window. When the caller's husband confronted the suspect, he fled on a bicycle northbound through the cemetery.

Officers immediately set up a perimeter with K9 Officer Cavanagh along with his partner K9 Conan searching the area. The search led northeast of the cemetery before the track was lost.

The suspect was described as an unknown male with a large build, wearing a dark hat and a heavy coat.

Later that evening, a suspect matching the same description was observed looking into windows in Birmingham.

Royal Oak and Birmingham detectives are collaboratively investigating these incidents.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the Royal Oak Police Department, Criminal Investigation Division Lieutenant Albert Carter at (248)246-3456.
