On the Road To Findout

Well, in the end I'll know but on the way I wonder
through descending snow,
and through the frost and thunder,
I listen to the wind come howl,
telling me I have to hurry.
I listen to the robin's song
saying not to worry.
So on and on I go,
the second tick the time out,
there's so much left to know,
and I'm on the road to find out.

Teachers: 1973. Some new and some old, but they always occupy the same little corner in each student's heart. They are respected for the parts they play in the ever onward and upward flow of each individual's education. They are perennial pyramids of strength amid this complicated desert of learning. What would we do without them?

Apes, may I speak to you a moment?
Chimpanzees, come hither for words.
Orangoutangs, let's get into a huddle.
Baboons, lemme whisper in your ears.
Gorillas, do yuh hear me hollerin' to yuh?
And monkeys! Monkeys! Get this chatter
Read the dictionary from A to Izzard today.
Get a vocabulary. Brush up on your diction.
See whether wisdom is just a lot of language.

The Players

Once there was an empty world
So potentially full of episodes which desperately needed playing—and so it was.

Yet there was still a void
Which a numbered few saw and took it upon themselves to show the masses the way they looked portraying themselves.

And the void was filled with laughter.

SENIOR MOCK ELECTIONS

Customarily mock elections are held prior to the All-Night-Party. At that time the results are announced but soon forgotten. Perhaps these pages will help you to remember. We would like to thank photographers Jerry Isner, Ted Arlt and Mark Bishop for doing a fantastic job.

"Those are the sweetest eyes I've ever seen." Sue Campbell and John Lesko.

TOP LEFT: Donn Frincke and Judy Cotton—Most Likely to Succeed?

LOWER LEFT: Dan Busto and Debby Standerfer exhibit their diverse athletic interests. By the way, girls, Dan was also voted "Most Eligible Bachelor."

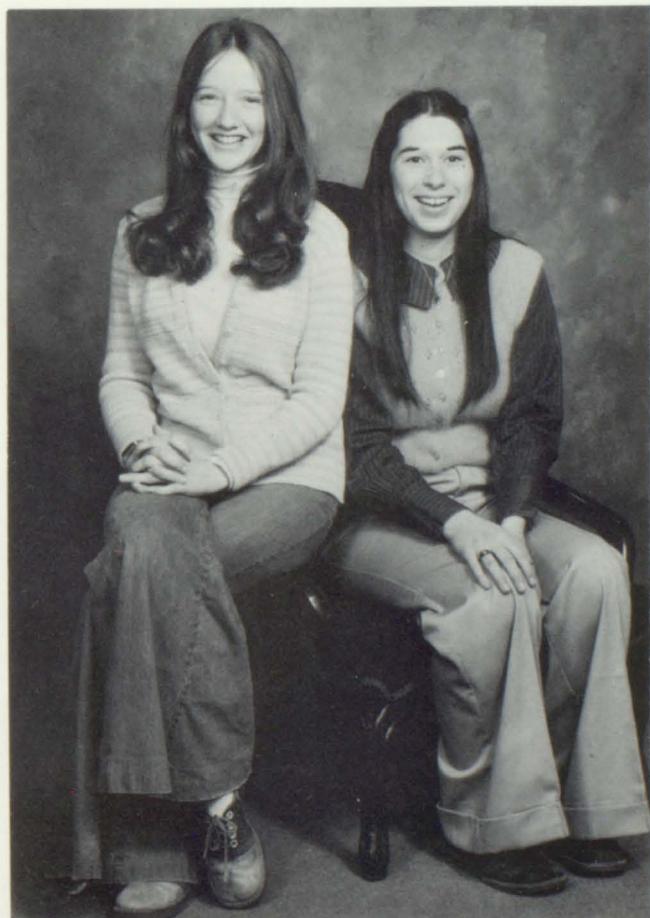

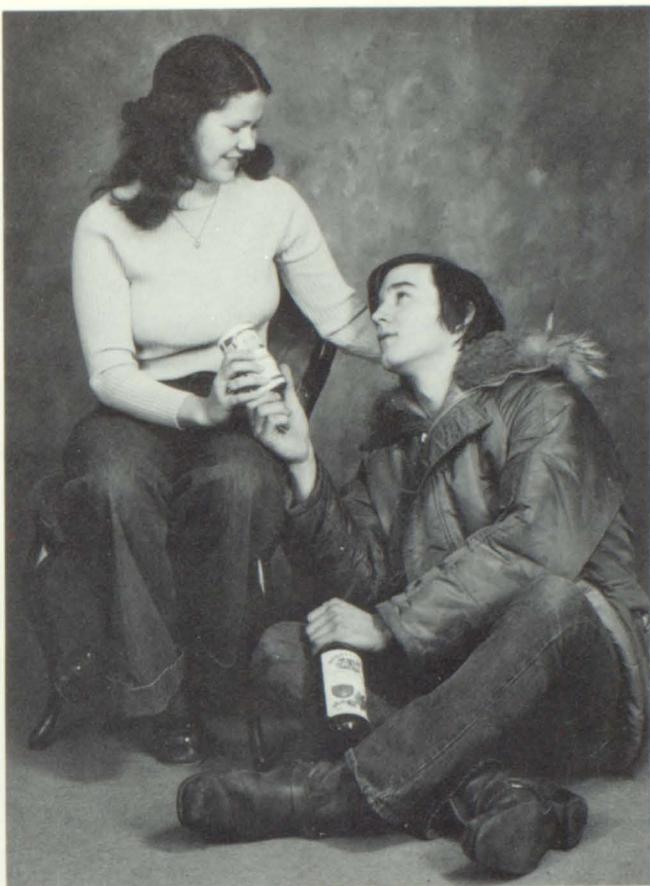

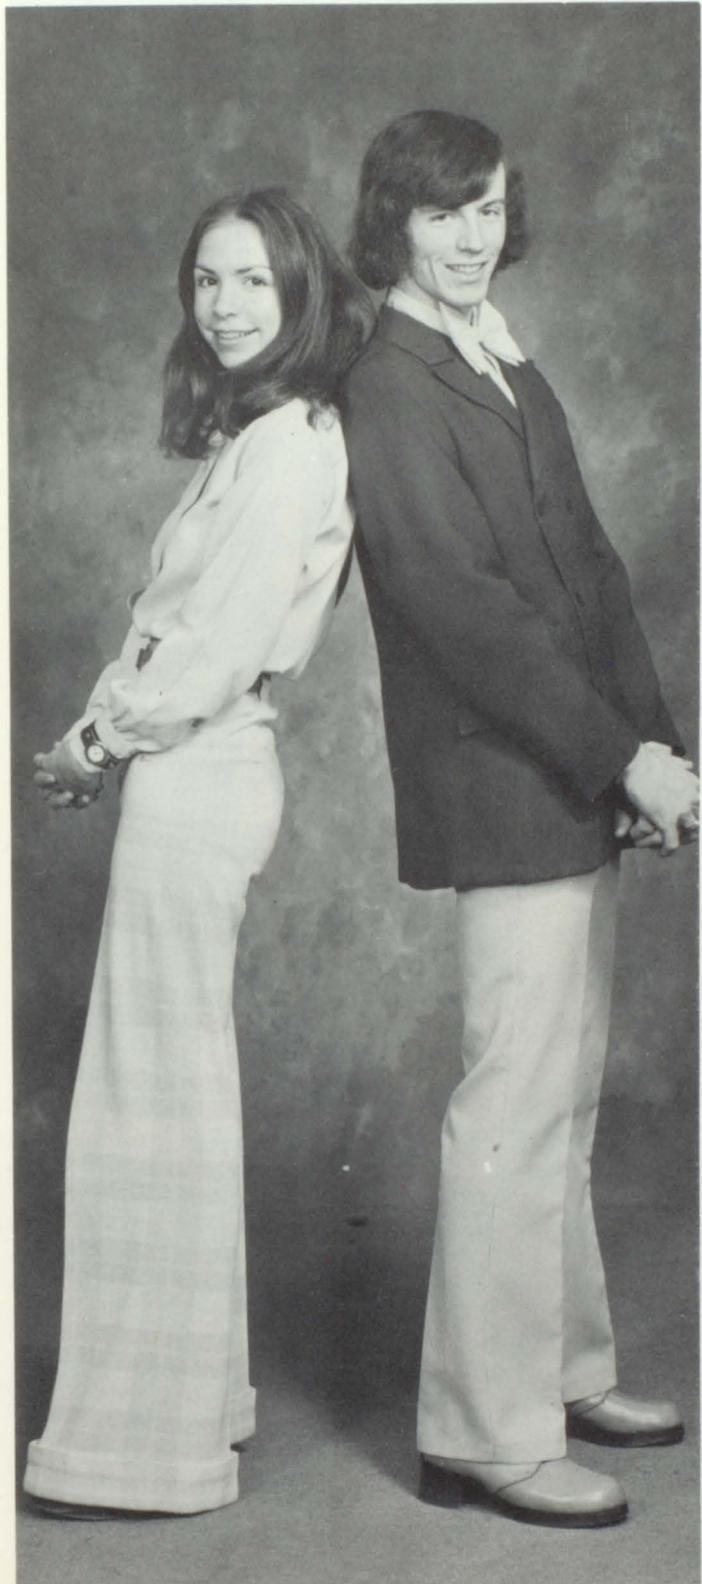

LOWER RIGHT: Shelley Ryan and Dennis Denisuk, best-dressed, right out of the pages of Vogue.

BELOW: Cindy Krueger, the girl with the whistle-bait figure, and Scott Hornbacker, the boy with the most amusing sense of humor . . . both also won Best Personality.

TOP RIGHT: Terry Ledwedge the Best Drinker, offers a beer to Margo Billips, the Girl we will Remember the Most.

Junior-Senior Mixer

At this particular mixer the results of the Junior class elections were announced. The present senior class officers provided refreshments. The band featured was the Window Frame, playing at so many of Dondero's cultural events. Two members of the band, Mark Bibby (below left) and Bill Dubrul (below) are current seniors at Dondero. The other members of the band are George (below) and Pat Schrein who attend St. Mary's of Royal Oak. Rock n' Roll lives at Dondero! Go Elvis!

Bahá'í in The Bahamas

Anxious seniors look over some brochures sent by the Jamaican Tourist Board.

Henry Pishko getting "paid off."

This year seniors chose Montego Bay, Jamaica for their senior trip but went to Nassau, Bahamas instead. Students International forgot to charter a plane and we almost didn't go. With the help of the media the company soon found a plane to the Bahamas, where it was still a memorable experience.

Blair Simmons and Donn Frincke help to beautify the school.

Jim Nancekievell easily prepares for the upcoming trip.

Joan Moore illustrates a problem facing many girls.

Beautiful people
You look like friends of mine
And it's about time
That someone said it here and now
I make a vow that sometime, somehow
I'll have a meeting
Invite ev'ryone you know
I'll pass out buttons to
The ones who come to show

PRESENTS

Beautiful people
Never have to be alone
'Cause there'll always be someone
With the same button on as you
Include him in ev'rything you do
He may be sitting right next to you
He may be Beautiful People too
And if you take care of him
Maybe he'll take care of you . . .

ABOVE: Mary Clery and Dan Webster share a private moment in the hall.
RIGHT: Freshmen wear every width of slacks!

Sometimes you have to moan
when nothing seems to suit yer,
but nevertheless you know
you're locked towards the future

Carry on love is coming

Love is coming to us all

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. ♡ Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ♡ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ♡ Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ♡ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ♡ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ♡ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ♡ With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ♡ ♡
