Tomorrow
Tomorrow does not stand apart,
    A shining, all new day;
Tomorrow is a thing slow-built
    Of hours passed away.
It's made of dreams your heart has stored,
    And dreams discarded, too;
It's made of all the joys and tears
    The years have brought to you.
It's made of lessons you have learned,
    The friends you've known — the foes;
As each of our Todays is bent,
    So our Tomorrow grows.
It's made of sweat and toil and pain
    And song and love and laughter;
Each minute of Today helps build
    The day that follows after.
Tomorrow does not spring full-built
    With some new dawn's bright rays —
Tomorrow is a slow-built thing
    Made up of Yesterdays.

Helen Lowrie Marshall

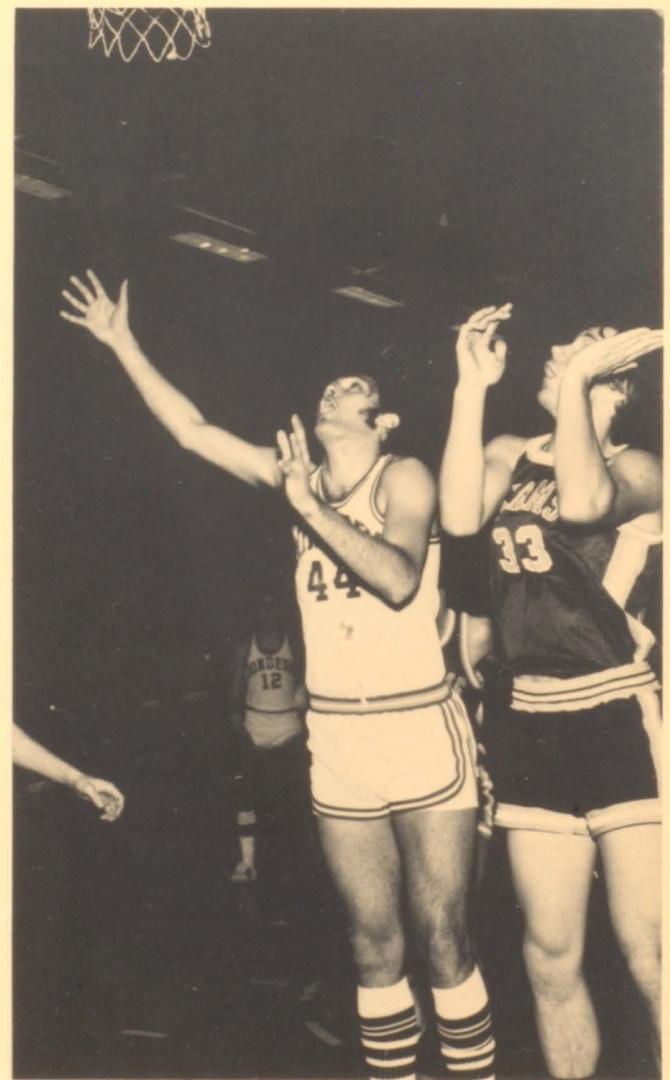

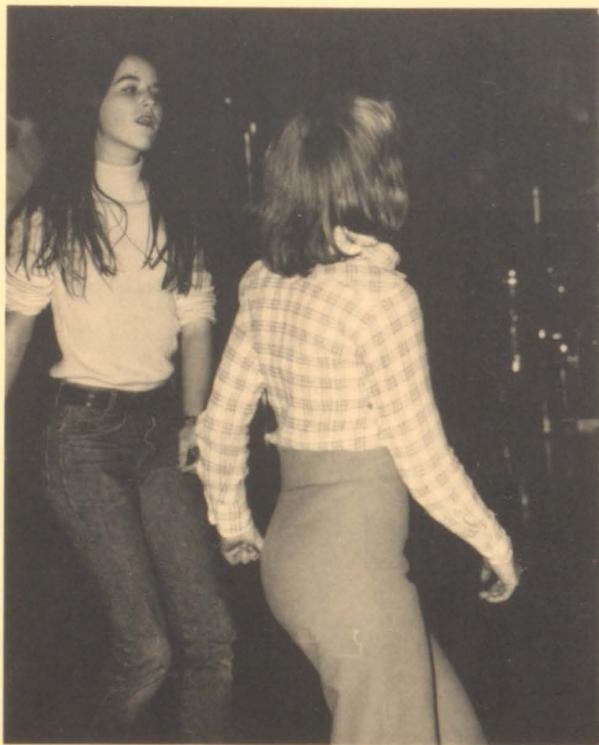

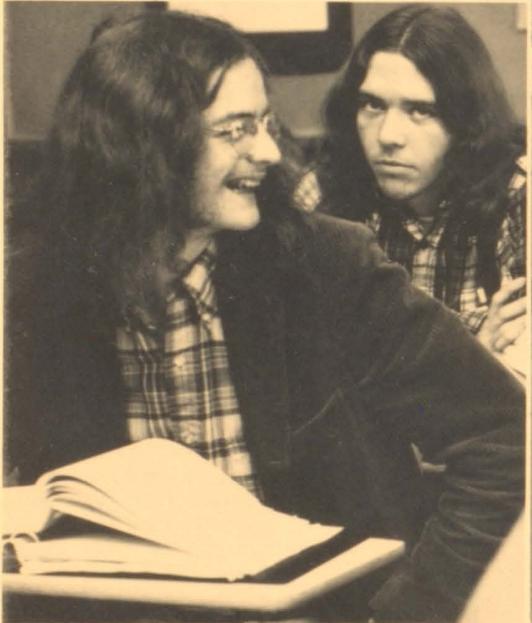

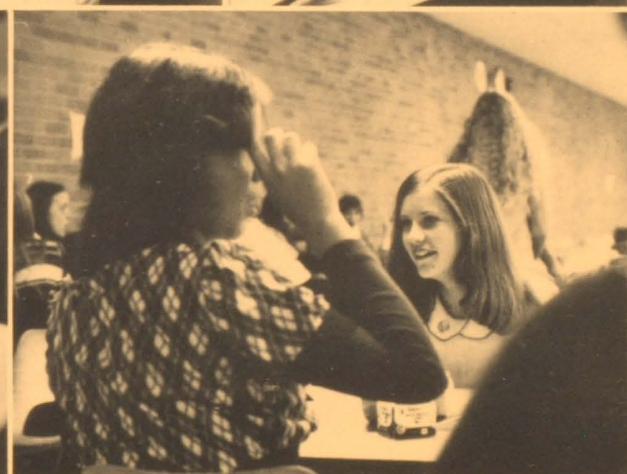

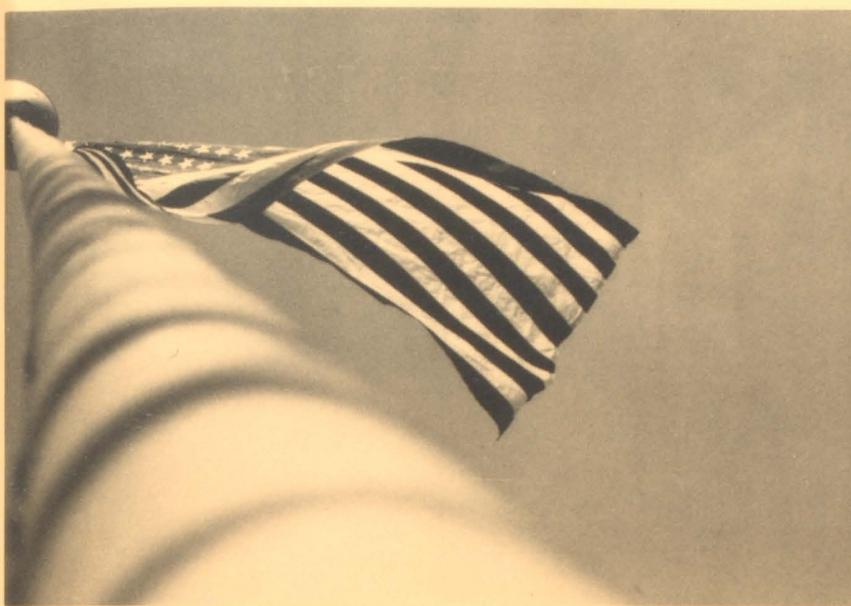

Patience
The seasons pass,
The seed sprouts.
The young branches begin to form,
To reach out for new experiences,
New contracts,
To test their strength
In the wind.
To examine their size and shape
As a child discovers
Its own hands and feet.

Leonard Nimoy

INTELLECTUAL LIFE

Herr Price's 3rd year German class. Practice makes perfect.

"How's the weather up there?" Greg Morrow asks Don Berry.

Language- A means of Communicating

The knowledge of a foreign language provides one with the opportunity to communicate with people of a foreign country.

The study of a foreign language not only includes grammar, but also the discussion of various aspects of a foreign life including sports, festivals, customs and history.

While taking a foreign language one is actually exposed to listening, speaking, reading and writing the language. This also helps one learn about and understand the people of other lands.

Our school provides us with the opportunity of studying three foreign languages: French, Spanish and German.

Dondero has four foreign language teachers: Madame Sauer, who teaches French; Herr Price and Herr Horton, who teach German; and Senor Solis, who teaches Spanish.

This year each of the foreign language classes caroled in one of the German class rooms. The big event of the year was the Foreign Language Festival which was put on at the end of the year by all of the language classes.

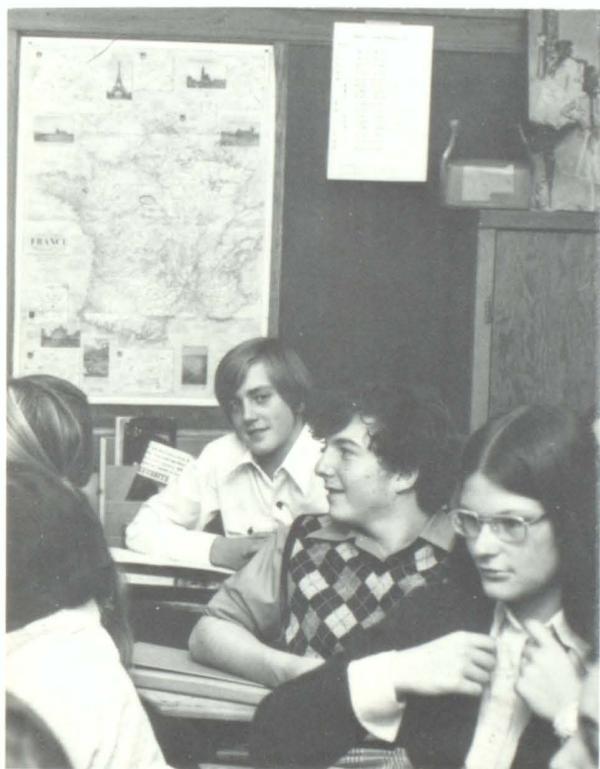

Maria (Coky) Larrea, one of our exchange students, is from Ecuador. She is trying to improve her Spanish. Ha! As if it needs improving.

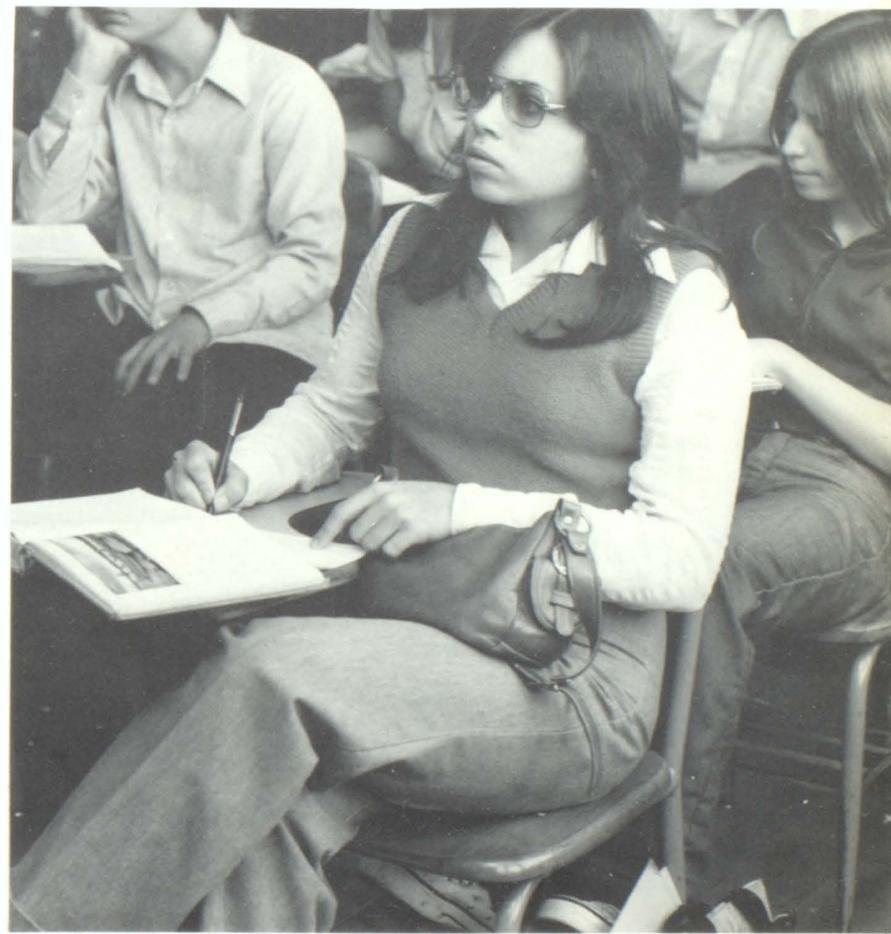

"Psssst! Why are you smiling?" asks Tim Shelley to Ron Karmen. But Ron doesn't hear him; he must be thinking about the girls in Germany.

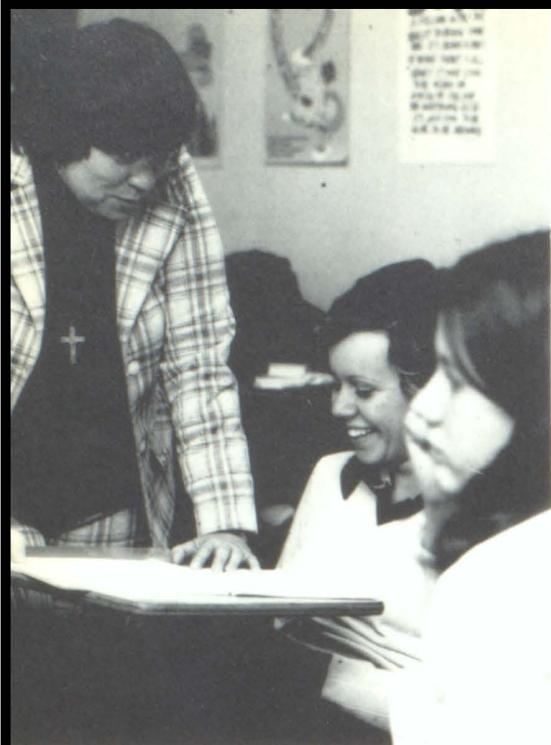

Mona Cocoli, a Spanish student from Egypt, is expanding her knowledge of languages. She speaks Arabic, English and now is learning Spanish.

Mrs. Sauer's second hour French class.

Is Beth Ault really concentrating on Spanish or is she imagining herself high up in the Andes Mountains of Peru or walking along the streets of Spain?

"You wouldn't dare take a picture of me," says Mrs. Brakeville. But we did.

Is Mark Walker really paying attention or is he daydreaming?

Poe, Shakespeare, Mark Twain, James Whitcomb Riley, Hemmingway, Thoreau, Charles Dickens.

The Raven, Macbeth, "Beowulf," Hamlet, Grapes of Wrath, To Kill a Mockingbird, Romeo and Juliet. Compositions, essays, term papers, journals, analyzing, characterizing, speeches. Books, short stories, grammar, sentence structure, word definitions, poetry and sonnets. English, who needs it? For some strange reason, we do.

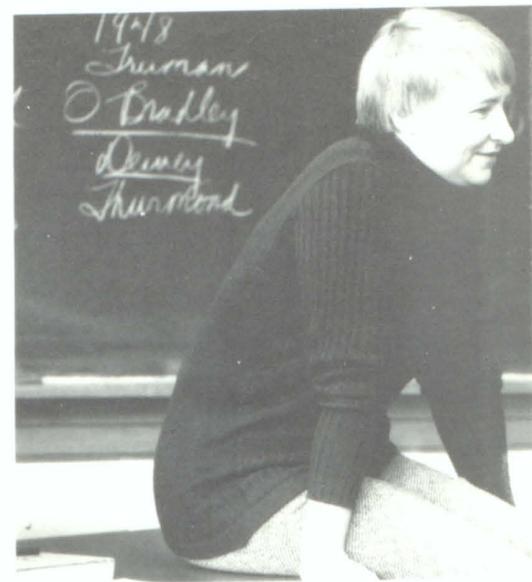

Giving a speech is serious business. Karen Kovich proves this.

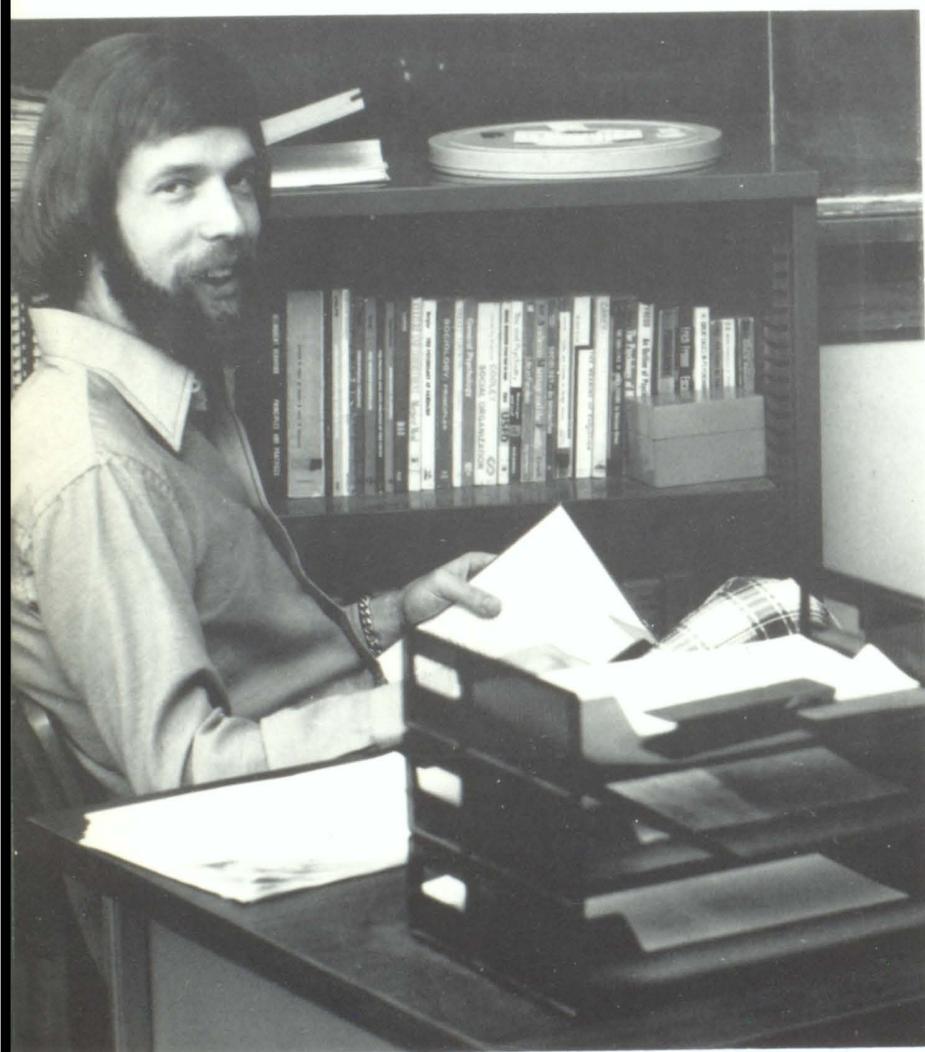

Mrs. Robertson lectures.

Ms. Vlaic, a student teacher this year at Dondro hands out papers to her Model Government class.

Miss Frei gives her class a nice smile.

"Aw come on," says Mr. Bienstock.

"Are you sleeping, are you sleeping?", Jill Wilson?

"In darkness stands the people that knows it's history not."

"Now what comes after A?" asks Dianne Schwarze. What a problem in filing.

Our Great Mathematicians at Work

P.T. Superstar, alias Mr. Phelan spews forth his wisdom to his Pre-Algebra class.

You really find that book interesting don't you Skip Gartelman?

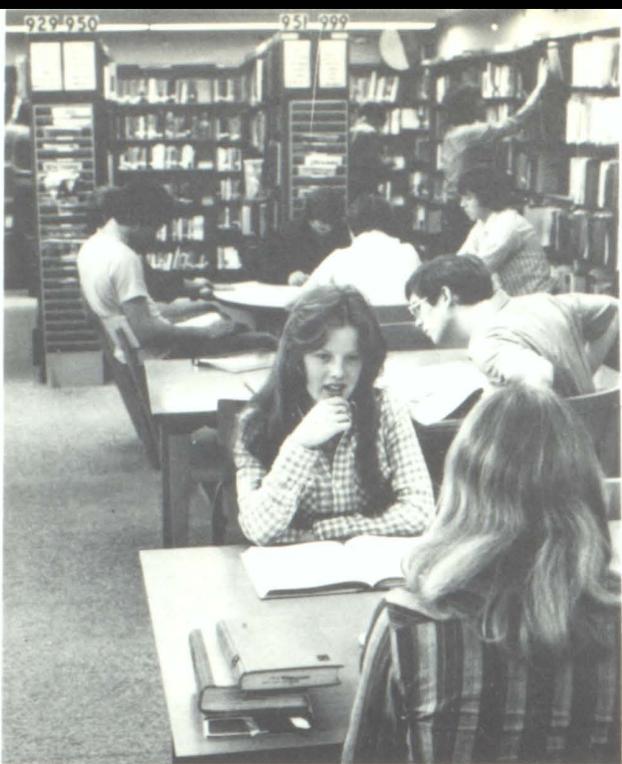

Mr. Eberhardt applies his wisdom to resolve a strange equation on the blackboard.

Kathy Schroeder asks Miss Barth for a little bit of her individual help.

"Mistakes will happen but do you have to give them so much help?", asks Mr. Deibel to his class.

Creative Writing Club

Dondero's own literary society, the Creative Writing Club, has accomplished much in the past years.

After numerous bake and candy sales, work was begun on the club's annual project, Genesis. This student's magazine of creative arts was under the innovative guidance of Editor-in-Chief Linda Haglund, Poetry Editor Robin Dodson, and Prose Editor Faith Fowler. The magazine also sponsored a writing contest.

Other club activities included regular trips to the Fisher Theatre. Under President Jim Mitulski and Vice President Bill Disessa, both formal and informal writing workshops were organized to help individual students and the club's members.

This year's club was the largest and one of the most active groups in Creative Writing Club history.

Creative minds are joined together, new plans are put into consideration, criticisms, new ideas, acceptance or rejection are common activities in the meetings of our future writers.

"We sure like these pictures, Bob", says Denise DeShane, Social Life Editor, and her assistant, Nancy Northway, to Bob Redfield, one of our photographers.

Steve Stockman thinks he can take better pictures in a more comfortable position.

"We have to choose the best pictures; the Oak has to be great": Sue Sherwin and Sue Stevenson work with these ideas on their minds.

To make the Oak famous a lot of work is needed; Laura Gay's attitude proves this.

Our Oakies

"Smile you are on Candid Camera", says Sandy Kalter.

"It is the glory of a good bit of work that it opens the way for better things."

The officers of the National Honor Society (N.H.S.) this year were President Joanne Pawlowski, Vice President Alice Sterkel, Secretary Carol Mitchell and Treasurer Carol Bradford. The club's sponsor was Mr. Bienstock.

In the 1974 Logomachia, the seniors barely defeated the juniors.

This year the members of the N.H.S. rented a series of films and presented them to the student body. A few of the various films were: "The Wild One" starring Marlon Brando, and "Duck Soup" featuring the Marx Brothers.

The Acorners are all Nuts

Donna Skelcy, Editor-in-Chief, looks very proud of the "Acorn Award."

Julie Herridge is writing an article, as an Acorn Reporter.

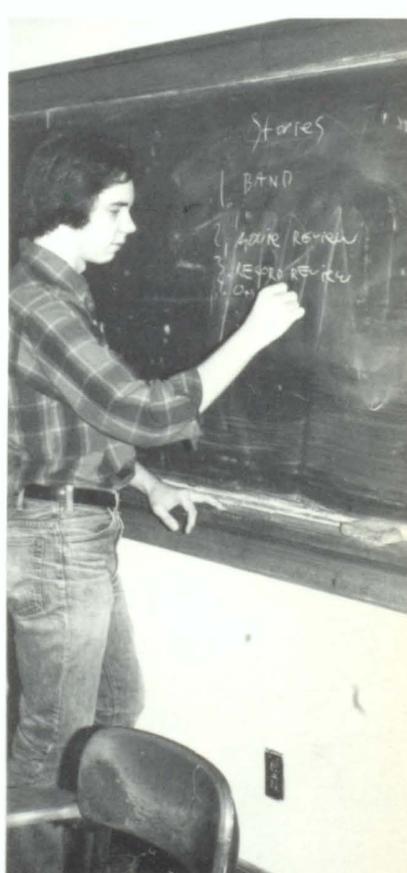

"And that's the way I got the article," Katie Lupton tells Nels Poulsen, Advertising Manager, and Alice Sterkel, News Editor.

The Acorn is the school newspaper. Each year it gets better and better. This year the students can enjoy the biggest paper ever published by the school, 20 pages. The Acorn won the Quill & Scroll International First Place Award earning 833 points of 1000. In April the Acorners published the Annual School satire issue "The Smirker". This year is also the first time that the newspaper offered subscriptions to parents, of which there were more than 100 sold.

Besides the staff members that we could include in the pictures on these pages, other members of the Acorn Team are: Wendy Powell, Feature Editor; Debbie Zieldorff, Sports Editor; Bill Disessa, Publicity Editor; Bruce Brundson, Circulation Manager; Bob Harvey, Exchange Manager; and reporters: Kevin Morrison, Dave Sawchuk, Tim Gerard, Elaine Maxwell and Linda Foster.

Marching Band

The person who toots his own horn has everyone running to get out of his way.

Mr. Winter directs the Band as the Drum Major Karl Staffeld stands at attention.

On October 5th Dondero was host to the Band Festival.

The Dondero Marching Band has been doing more things this year than ever before. Besides going to all the football games the band has been involved in many other activities.

On October 5th on the football field Mr. Parker, Mr. Winter, and the Marching Band were hosts to bands from 10 neighboring communities who gave performances in the South Eastern Marching Band Festival.

Dondero's Marching Band was asked to play and did play on November 17th at the Detroit Lions Football game's halftime festivities which we all believe is a great honor.

What seems to be the most exciting and most looked forward to activity is the trip that is planned for this coming July to Europe. The band and orchestra have worked many long and hard hours this year with practices and selling placemats, jewelry, and Texas Fruit in order to raise money for the trip. The Band hopes to attend the International Band Festival in Vienna.

"Make your own kind of music, sing your own special song."

The Dondero Music Department has a right to be proud of its fine choirs.

The members of the choir put in many long hours of practice and hard work to achieve perfection.

On December 13th at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium the different choirs combined talents to put on the Winter Concert. Each choir contributed to the performance singing many different songs.

The voices filled the Auditorium and the concert was a big success.

Sing with all your heart—Girls Glee.

Art Expresses Life

The art classes are bigger and better this year. Under the direction of Mr. Fischer and Mr. Retell, Dondero has five Art I classes, 3 Art II classes, and one Advanced art class. Within the art classes the student explores many different techniques of art, some of them being perspective, articulation and illustration. They work in such media as water colors, plaster and clay.

Jim Williamson, "It moved!"

"But, Mr. Fischer, I liked it better my way," says Diane Frazier.

'Thurbers Carnival'

The Royal Oak Dondero Drama Club presented "A Thurber Carnival" on November 15 and 16, in the Dondero High School Auditorium.

"A Thurber Carnival" was a collection of fourteen dramatizations of some of James Thurber's most famous stories. Two of which were "If Grant Had Been Drinking at Appomattox" and "Gentlemen Shoppers".

The play was directed by Miss Maureen McCarthy, a newcomer to Dondero this year. The play's technical director was Mr. George Quesnelle.

Steve Wallace, "It's not so easy to fool little girls these days."

SOCIAL LIFE

HOMECOMING 1974

Once again the Autumn Auto Annual started off the Homecoming festivities. This years float themes were based on the titles of popular songs. Seniors won first place with "Tie a victory ribbon 'round the old oak tree". Acapella choir took second place with "House of the Rising Oaks". Freshmen made third place with "Up Up 'n Away".

During halftime the Oakettes, a new modern dance group at Dondero and the cheerleaders performed a dance routine for the game spectators and were accompanied by the Dondero Marching band playing "You and Me".

The beautiful senior, Jenny Johnson, was crowned Homecoming Queen. And the Dondero Oaks won the game against Birmingham Groves with the score of 18-6.

Notice something different taking place at some of the basketball games this year? The Oakettes, a modern dance group, was formed this year. The group of twelve girls was originated by Laura Gay and Leilani Olmstead. The Oakettes made their debut at the Homecoming game in October, but did most of their performing during halftime at many of the home basketball games. Their costumes consisted of a checkered skirt and blue leotards, but many times they dressed in costumes to fit in with their performance.

Cathy Campbell and Kim McDermid clown around at one of the games.

Student Senate was involved in many activities this year. The Autumn Auto Annual, the after-game dances, the hayride and the Semi-Formal were all a great success. Exchange Days between area schools were enjoyed by all who participated.

Foreign Exchange Club

Exchange Sisters Coky Larrea, Terry Gartelman; Lori McEvoy, Mieka Okada.

The Exchange Club must be more fun this year. It seems so anyway because the membership has doubled since last year. It went from only 11 members to a whomping 25. One of the reasons might be its new sponsor, a pretty, young English teacher, Miss Joliat. Another reason might be because it was very active this year, doing things like selling balloons at Homecoming and having an international dinner here at school. It also has two exchange students, Coky Larrea from Ecuador and Mieka Okada from Brazil. Next year they will be sending Terry Gartelman, a senior, to spend a year in Ecuador. Terry is Coky's American sister.

Spanish Club

Mr. Solis is the sponsor of the Spanish Club.

The Spanish Club took part in many different things this year. Besides the usual candy sales and bake sales, they held a clothing drive for the people in Honduras, went to a play at Oakland University, and went to the Latin American festivals last fall. In February the club went to El Sol to eat. In March they went to see flamenco dancers and also participated in the International Festival at Dondero in May.

Students on the Job

In today's world of layoffs and unemployment, it's hard for high school students to find jobs, no less to keep them. With the economy bad and inflation, it has now become a necessity for many students to have a job. The old allowance from the parents doesn't even begin to cover the price of anything any more.

And while it used to be mostly seniors and juniors holding the jobs, a surprising number of sophomores and freshmen have now joined the working force. The majority of the students still hold only part-time jobs, but more than ever before are now attempting to attend school and work full time.

HOMECOMING 1974

The best way to make your dreams come true is to wake up, Jenny Johnson and Mark MacPartlin.

With style and grace comes Shelley Sherwin and Kerry Budry.

"There's nothing that compares to the thrill I received at Homecoming . . . I'd like to thank the Senior Class for making it possible. Best wishes to everyone.

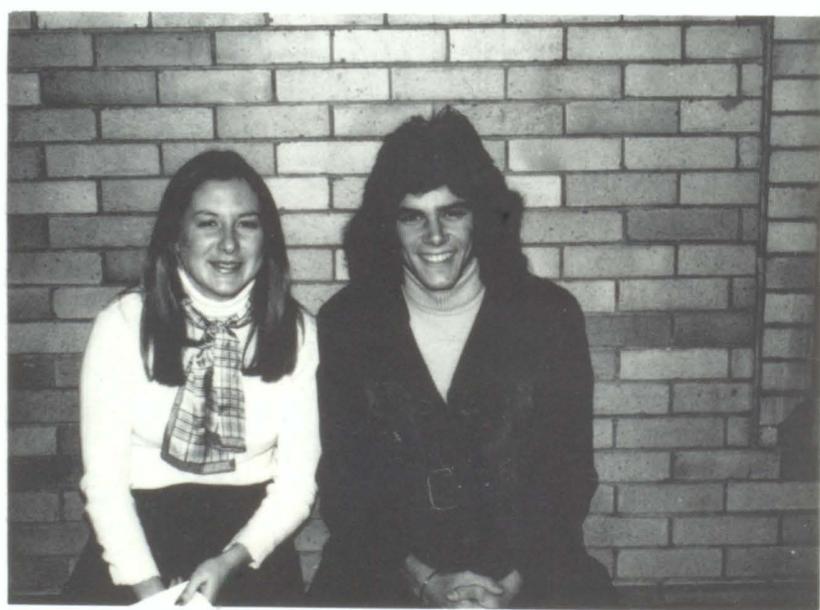

Jennifer Johnson

Always leave something to wish for — stands Denise Spaust and Terry Cummings.

Smiling sweetly sits Sandy Strong and Mark Yurich.

We should gain more by letting ourselves be seen such as we are, than by attempting to appear what we are not, stands Sandy Strong, Shelly Sherwin, Jenny Johnson.

Only eyes washed by tears can see clearly, as Shelley Sherwin hugs Jenny Johnson, the new Homecoming Queen.

Tieing a Victory Ribbon around the other Oak floats, is the Senior Float.

*ABOVE: That which happens in a moment, which may not happen in a thousand years!

Cheerful people live longest here on earth, because they remain afterward in our hearts.

1974-75 SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Steve Petrucci, Denise DeBoard, Kathy Parlin, and Robin Gamble.

Our Senior Class Officers are planning a pretty exciting year for us. We will have Senior Mixers, and they have equipped the football games with goodies. Our Prom this year will be held at the Royalty House in Warren.

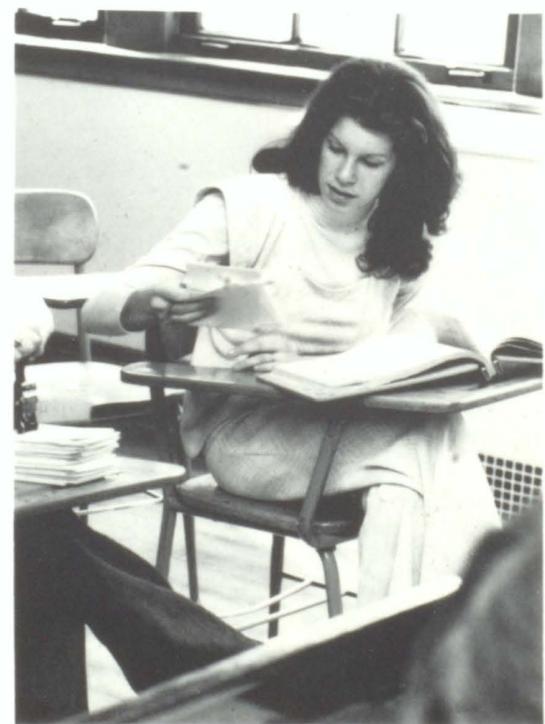

We want to thank our officers for making our senior year a memorable one!

"Yes, the young people of today are tomorrow's leaders, no doubt." Advisor, Mr. Henry Pishko.

Steve Petrucci, Robin Gamble, Mr. Pishko, Denise DeBoard, and Murray Moore, who is our new Senior Class Treasurer.

Kathy Parlin was the class treasurer for the first two months of school. She did a great job and we were sorry to see her leave.

AIN'T NO JIVE WITH 75

1974-75's Senior Class President, Steve Petrucci.

Denise DeBoard is the Senior Class Secretary.

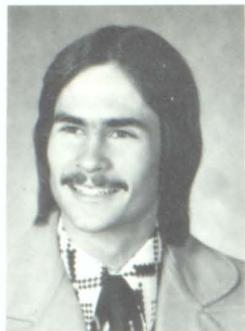

Who is this sweet little thing? Well it's our V.P. Robin Gamble.

Hard at work is our new Treasurer, Murray Moore.

IN MEMORIAM

Cynthia Anne Locke

1957-1974

Dear Cindy,

We can only say thank you. Thank you for being yourself and being with us. We're the people who have grown accustomed to your smile, the people who loved you, the people who laughed with you, the people who were sometimes embarrassed by your exuberance. We're the people who shared times of talking, singing, studying, praying and working with you.

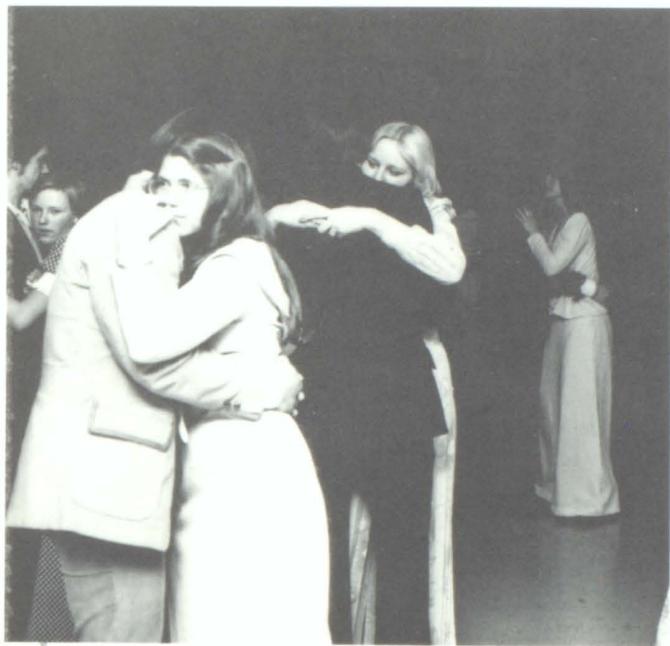

You touched each of us, even if it was only with a friendly glance, or a brief moment of laughter. We are here because we knew you were special.

With much love,

your friends

1975 SEMI-FORMAL

Music makes the heart grow fonder.

Lay your head on my shoulder; Karen Finley and Mike Seery.

Class Color: Blue & White

Class Motto: We have reached this goal to begin another.

Class Flower: Red Rose

It's made of dreams your heart has stored,
And dreams discarded too;
It's made of all the joys and tears
The years have brought to you.

Congratulations to Nick, Rich, and Bruce

for suffering through another year here at Dondero —

Congrats to the rest of you nuts too.

Get the Spirit

1974-75 Cheerleaders

I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world . . .
For my purpose holds to sail beyond the sunset,
And the baths of all the western stars,
Until I die . . .
And though we are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven,
That which we are, we are—
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate,
But strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find,
And not to yield.

—Alfred, Lord Tennyson, Ulysses

"The trick is in what one emphasizes," Don Juan said.
"We either make ourselves miserable, or we make ourselves strong. The amount of work is the same."

—Carlos Castaneda, Journey to Ixtlan

"Every generation has its central concern, whether to end war, erase racial injustice, or improve the condition of the working man.
Today's young people appear to have chosen for their concern the dignity of the individual human being."

—Robert F. Kennedy

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow, creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
to the last syllable of recorded time;
and all our yesterdays have lighted fools
the way to dusty death.

—The Bard, Macbeth V, 5
